

Cookie Policy

B S Eaton Ltd

Effective Date: 14th October 2026

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer, tablet or mobile device when you visit a website. They enable websites to function correctly, remember your preferences and help website owners understand how visitors use their sites.

Cookies cannot normally identify you personally, although some may collect information that could be linked to you when combined with other information.

How B S Eaton Ltd uses cookies

B S Eaton Ltd uses cookies to:

- Ensure the website operates correctly.
- Improve website security.
- Remember your cookie preferences.
- Monitor website performance and visitor statistics (where consent has been given).
- Improve the user experience.

We do not use cookies to collect sensitive personal information.

Types of cookies we use

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential for the operation of our website. They enable core functions such as page navigation, security and remembering your cookie consent preferences.

These cookies cannot be disabled through our website as they are required for the site to function.

Examples include:

- Session cookies
- Security cookies
- Cookie consent settings

Analytics Cookies

If enabled, analytics cookies help us understand how visitors use our website by collecting anonymous information such as:

- Pages viewed
- Time spent on the website
- Number of visitors
- Browser and device type

This information helps us improve our website.

Analytics cookies are only used where you have provided your consent.

Functional Cookies

Functional cookies remember choices you make, such as language or display preferences, to improve your experience.

These cookies are only used where you have consented.

Third-Party Cookies

Our website may include content or links from third-party providers, such as:

- Google Maps
- YouTube
- Social media platforms
- Embedded documents

These third parties may place cookies on your device. B S Eaton Ltd does not control these cookies and recommends reviewing the privacy policies of those providers.

Managing Cookies

Most web browsers allow you to control cookies through their settings. You can delete existing cookies or prevent new cookies from being stored.

Please note that disabling some cookies may affect the functionality of this website.

How Long Cookies Are Stored

Some cookies are deleted when you close your browser (session cookies).

Others remain on your device until they expire or are deleted by you (persistent cookies). The length of time depends on the purpose of each cookie.

Changes to this Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes in legislation or changes to the cookies used on our website.

The latest version will always be available on this page.
